

Veolia Water Solutions & Technologies UK in close co-operation with Aquantis have built a multiple step anaerobic / aerobic wastewater treatment plant with the object to reuse the treated water.

Aquantis supplied a complete Biosep[®] MBR filtration unit equipped with hollow fibre membranes, with a capacity of 50 m³/h. As the system was pre-fabricated and completely tested, commissioning and start-up were smooth and completed within a relatively short period of time.

